

ANNOUNCEMENT: Return to In-Person Court Proceedings before Judge Wanslee

Date: September 5, 2025

Subject: Transition to In-Person Hearings and Calendar Calls

Effective Date: Monday, September 22, 2025

Notice to All Counsel, Pro Se Parties, and Court Participants: Please be advised that, effective September 22, 2025, all hearings, except Reaffirmation Agreement Hearings, before Judge Wanslee will be in-person proceedings. Reaffirmation Agreement Hearings will continue to be held via videoconference.

Key Changes:

- In-Person Attendance: Counsel and pro se parties must appear in-person for hearings unless the Court orders otherwise.
- Virtual Viewing: Virtual or remote calendar calls and hearings will typically no longer be available as a matter of course.

Important Note:

- While this announcement signals a return to all in-person proceedings, remote participation for case participants may still be allowed for specific case matters at the Court's discretion.
